

Don't panic, just testing

Huge earthquake due Friday morning

ALBANY—An earthquake will hit the Bay Area at exactly 7:30 a.m. Aug. 27, but residents won't feel it, and members of the Albany police, fire and public works departments will be expecting it.

According to Alameda County officials, the simulated earthquake will be part of an exercise to test emergency plans, staffing response and back-up communications of the county and its 13 cities.

The command headquarters in Albany will be at the fire station and manned by a representative from the fire department, police, public works and local civil defense shelter system.

The exercise scenarios given to each jurisdiction that day will simulate a high

- magnitude earthquake with widespread damage and numerous casualties; thousands will be homeless; freeway overpasses will crumble; large buildings will fall; communications will be crippled; and fires will blacken the skies.

Specific local problems will be posed throughout the county, and government officials will be challenged to meet the needs of evacuation, relocation, mass medical care, transportation and sanitation.

"For instance, in Albany a water main might break on Marin Avenue, flooding residences, or a BART train might fall off its tracks," explained assistant city engineer Robert Guletz.

"Simulators" will be located in a room apart from the command headquarters, Guletz said. During the course of the morning, they will be given specific incidents from the test center which they will then relay to the command headquarters.

The "emergency" generated by the incident will then be handled by the

this year promises another horde at the annual show

Annual pet show slated

ALBANY — The Albany Parks and Recreation Department's annual pet show, which has seen everything from a prize-winning fly to a tongue-flicking lizard, will be held at 10 a.m. Aug. 28 at Memorial Park, Pomona and Portland Avenues.

No advance registration is necessary. However, entrants must be at the park by 9:45 a.m.

The show will be open to all pets owned by youngsters 16 years of age and younger. Animals must be on a leash or in control of their owners. Water will be provided.

Trophies will be awarded for the following categories: outstanding dog, biggest dog, smallest dog, cutest cat, biggest cat, smallest cat, best reptile, best rodent, most unusual pet of the show and best pet of the show.

According to pet show coordinator Don Dupin, the show will be a "treat for children who have taken the time and care to raise their own pets."

"We discourage children bringing pets owned by other people," he said.

Trophies will be awarded for first place, ribbons for second and third, and participation ribbons for all entrants.

Judging will be based mainly on questions posed to pet owners about feeding and general care of their animals.

"In past years we've had ducks, pigs, goats, rare snakes, chickens, rare fishes, doves and yes, lizards (Turn to Page 4, Col. 1)

Unofficial ok given by council

By BOB KROLL

ALBANY — The city council has taken an important first step toward adopting a proposed "lenient city-wide sign ordinance."

The ordinance, if approved as discussed at Monday night's public hearing, would provide a 10-year moratorium on removing existing signs which do not conform with the ordinance.

On a motion by Councilman Pat Griffin the council gave unofficial approval to the draft ordinance, adding to it the 10-year moratorium, calling for a city-wide survey of existing signs, and eliminating the size and quantity restrictions on political signs.

The draft ordinance, which was three years in the making, was presented to the council by Ann Berry, chairman of the planning and zoning commission.

"It is not a very strict ordinance, but it is one which will accomplish the purposes of eliminating the clutter of signs and reducing the size," Ms. Berry said.

She said the ordinance was purposely designed to be more restrictive of signs on Solano Avenue than on San Pablo Avenue, but noted that merchants on Solano supported this distinction and favor a reduction in the size and quantity of signs on Solano, a street noted for small stores and pedestrian traffic.

She also said the committee which worked on the ordinance realized that the two avenues were meant to develop "in different directions" under provisions of the city's general plan — one for foot traffic and small shops and the other for auto traffic.

Mishap mars Coupon Days

ALBANY — An otherwise festive Albany Cable Coupon Days promotion was marred by the injury of 12-year-old Linda Postans of Santa Fe Avenue, reported in "very grave" condition yesterday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

The Albany girl suffered head injuries Friday after she jumped from a moving motorized cable car traveling along Solano Avenue, police reports said.

This and similar cases are made possible by the new Motorola communications system, recently installed after two years of planning and promoting.

The city tab was small, about $15,000 and the entire project was made possible by allocation of $68,000 of federal Safe Street funds by (Turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

Alcoholic care at Alta Bates

BERKELEY — The CAREUNIT program at Alta Bates Hospital is a voluntary intensive, three-week (minimum) alcoholic rehabilitation program that begins when the patient is medically stable, usually within two to three days after admittance to the hospital.

Patients are admitted to Alta Bates via standard hospital admitting policies, officials noted.

Staff physicians refer patients to the CAREUNIT for overall management by the medical director or have the option of following their own patients during the medical

Other physicians may refer patients to the program's medical director for evaluation and admission.

The CAREUNIT program at Alta Bates consists of intensive medical and rehabilitative care administered by an interdisciplinary team trained in the field of alcoholism. The

Howell blasts council meeting's cancellation

By NORMAN COLBY
I-G Staff Writer

ALBANY — Albany Councilman Lewis Howell is objecting to the cancellation of last week's council meeting, declaring, "This is no way to run a city."

Although the meeting had been cancelled Monday afternoon, both Howell and Councilman Robert Luoma attended.

After a brief staff session relating to bidding on a construction project, Howell asked for reasons why the regular council meeting had been cancelled.

City Clerk Patricia George replied that there was no quorum since Councilman Mike Gleason was out of town and the city had been notified by Mayor Joyce Jackson and Vice Mayor Pat Griffin that they would not be able to attend.

Mayor Jackson told the I-G that she had not been feeling well and Griffin said most of the items could be postponed.

Both Howell and Luoma had received notification of the cancellation the afternoon before the scheduled meeting. But Howell told the I-G, "The people had no way of knowing beforehand. There was a long agenda. I just wanted to see what would happen. There was a good crowd."

During the informal gathering Monday, Howell told the audience, "... This is no way to run a city. The council has before it a three-page agenda. If the city department heads allowed everyone to be gone at one time, there would be chaos in the city."

"Council members" continued Howell, "Should schedule their vacations so there would be a quorum available for meetings."

"I've had some 22 years on the council, and in my memory this is the first time this has ever happened," Howell said.

Mayor Jackson later told the I-G: "Just about every public agency I know of, including other city councils, make it a point to schedule no meetings for a period during August. The Albany council should consider perhaps a two-week period in August where no meetings would be scheduled."

Council members generally agreed that the proposed six charter amendments, scheduled for consideration last Monday night, are dead for the present, with a revival possible in the spring election.

During an earlier meeting, Howell and Luomas both expressed doubts about submitting the charter proposals to the voters in November.

City Clerk George said

she needed to have council action last Monday in order to meet the tomorrow's deadline for submitting them to the county for inclusion on the November ballot.

The charter proposals included changing the two-thirds requirement to 60 percent voter approval for passage of a bond issue, and consolidating the biennial city election with the general election in the spring of the even-numbered year.

During the staff session Monday night, six bids were opened for construction of the Marin Avenue extension.

Low bidder was Ransome Company, $8,312, with the other bids ranging to a top of $10,740.

UC students' taxes

Property seizure not contemplated

By MARCY KATES
I-G Staff Writer

OAKLAND — Alameda County Tax Collector Frank Krause announced that he "definitely will not" seize and sell the personal property of any University of California at Berkeley students who refuse to pay the new possessory tax imposed by the county.

Students living in the university-owned married student housing have been ordered to pay between $35 and $120 by Aug. 31, but many have said they won't pay the tax.

"We will not sell the property of any student who refuses to pay the tax," Krause said yesterday, "nor will we lock them out of their houses."

"But," he continued, "after two months of delinquency, I will record a certificate of lien, which will cloud their credit ratings for ten years. But anytime the students wish to pay the tax, the lien will be lifted."

Krause said that he considers the possessory interest tax on students "a crummy law. Nobody likes it and we're trying to get it changed."

Krause reported on how his office would enforce the tax law at yesterday's meeting of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors. The supervisors have directed the county counsel to write to the State Board of Equalization, requesting it to reverse an earlier ruling which permits the county to levy a possessory interest tax against students living in university-owned housing.

Krause said that students living in UC-Berkeley dormitories have not been billed, pending a new ruling from the State Board of Equalization.

But, he said, the county supervisors have the power to exempt all properties in (Turn to Page 4, Col. 1)

Coupon Days winners selected

ALBANY — Names of seven winners of grand prizes have been drawn to conclude the three-day Albany Cable Car Coupon Days promotion.

The winners names were pulled out of a barrel by Maid of Albany Susan Richardson at a ceremony at noon Monday at Albany Bowl.

Top prize winner was L. H. Burman of Peralta Avenue, Albany, whose coupon was pulled for the 19-inch RCA color TV, courtesy of Albany TV.

Doris R. Schneider of Garfield Avenue, Albany, won the 13-inch Zenith color TV, courtesy of Stanley TV. Winner of the Pace CB radio, also courtesy of Albany TV, was Elizabeth Wiley of Brighton Avenue, Albany. M. Wisotsky of Marin Avenue, Albany, won the Zenith AM/FM digital clock radio, courtesy of Supreme TV.

Bound for a three-day, two-night stay at the King's Inn in Reno will be Marilyn Rie of Madison Street, Albany. Her prize was courtesy of Nevada-Tahoe Tours.

Other winners included Louis Leimone of Garfield Avenue, Albany, and Ida Morgan of Kearney Street, El Cerrito. Leimone won the G.E. tape recorder and Mrs. Morgan, the digital watch. Both prizes were courtesy of The Times.

If prizes are not claimed, another drawing will be held at a later date.

Albany police equipped with 'Star Trek' radio

ALBANY — Comic-strip detective Dick Tracy would have trouble selling his famous wrist radios in Albany since the police there have something almost as good.

Albany officers in their patrol cars and on the street are quickly adapting to their new "Star Trek" communications equipment which enables them to talk directly and instantly with patrolling officers of neighboring cities.

The central police switchboard is no longer a time-barrier, with precious seconds lost as bobbies in fast-moving cars race across city boundaries.

Albany's 1.4 square mile area is nestled between Berkeley on one side and El Cerrito and Richmond on the other.

It always troubled Police Chief James Simmons that his officers had to relay their urgent information to other cities through a central switchboard, which however efficient, couldn't help but slow down the process.

"The other day," he said, "a guy drove off from a gas station in Albany without paying heading into El Cerrito."

"Our officer with his new mobile unit was able to immediately switch onto his El Cerrito channel and directly inform an El Cerrito patrol car what happened. They replied that the escaping car was immediately in front of them," said Simmons.

An individual's health background must be furnished in order to obtain the service. Self-care of feet also is stressed. Call 644-6060 for information.

Other services include referrals to podiatrists, general practitioners, eye doctors and other specialists.

A follow-up service also is offered.

Democrats lead GOP

ALBANY — Democrats outnumber Republicans in Albany by a more than five to two margin, while in Berkeley the margin stretches to a five to one tally.

The two cities' registrations are an exaggerated reflection of Alameda and Contra Costa counties where Democrats hold the edge with well over 50 percent of the registered voters, according to a recent registration report compiled by Secretary of State March Fong Eu.

In Albany the count is 5,496 Democrats to 1,989 Republicans, and in Berkeley, Democrats outnumber the Republicans 53,072 to 9,969.

For all of Alameda County, Democrats lead with 66.6 percent of the registered voters, compared to the 26.3 Republican percentage. The American Independent and Peace and Freedom Parties hang on to a tiny 0.2 and 0.4 percent respectively.

In Contra Costa County, Democrats represent 57.3 of the registered voters; Republicans, 37.5 percent; American Independent, 0.3 percent; and Peace and Freedom, 0.1 percent.

the Alameda County Regional Criminal Justice Planning Board.

One of the county planning board members is Albany Councilman Mike Gleason who backed Simmons' efforts.

For an Albany officer in the field to talk or listen directly to a Berkeley, El Cerrito or Richmond officer in the field requires a whole new array of space-age equipment, including a multi-channel selector switch mounted on his mobile unit in the car or the portable radio on his hip.

Add to those items the "base-station" console back in the police station, with its monitor receivers, transmitting and receiving modules, with instant receipt of all police communications from Albany's close neighbors, also Oakland and the California Highway Patrol.

Near the operator, who can be anyone in the department, is a new machine for logging all incoming calls, with the service also provided for incoming fire emergency calls. Simmons said, "The new system gives us flexibility, speed and the higher capacity of many radio channels, with others to be added in the future."

When the 9-1-1 emergency phone system is activated in the state the Albany system will plug right in.

The system has been dubbed "Star Trek," said Simmons, because of the array of flashing and blinking lights in the central console at the police department headquarters.

The complicated installation, including adaption of much of the department's existing equipment, was accomplished by the Alameda County Sheriff's Department's communications section.

Even the chief gets his own souvenir, a gadget carried by several of the plain-clothes officers. It's a "pager," attached to the belt of shirt which informs its wearer that he or she is wanted by headquarters.

Rain sets stage for holocaust

By JEAN DICKINSON

I-G Staff Writer

The recent storm which dumped more than an inch of rain here in four days will have little beneficial effect on drought conditions, according to East Bay fire experts.

In fact, they say, it might even compound problems in what is considered the driest season since Sept. 25, 1923 — the day fire swept down from the Berkeley hills and burned more than 625 homes.

"I've already noticed that some of the grass seed in the hills has started to germinate because of the early rain," Fire Chief Richard Aronson of the East Bay Regional Park District said yesterday.

If the weather stays dry, as expected, the new growth of grass will wither and die in the next few weeks, adding a new layer of tinder-dry fuel to the already parched East Bay hills, he explained.

According to Aronson, fires have increased this year by a startling 92 percent in the East Bay Regional Park District. "With another layer of dead grass to worry about, we could be in a real fix by October," he said.

As a precautionary measure for the duration of the critical period, Aronson was authorized Tuesday by the EBRPD's board to add seven seasonal fire fighters to his staff of one fulltime captain, three seasonal fire fighters, and the 40 maintenance persons who double as fire fighters on the district's 41,000 acres.

Even with the boost in staff, however, Aronson said fire restrictions would be instituted in some of the East Bay parks within the next two weeks if dry conditions continue. In addition to banning all fires — cigarettes, barbecue pits, charcoal braziers, etc. — it could mean the eventual closing of endangered parks, a measure already taken a dozen times this year at Sunol and Del Valle Parks in Alameda County.

"Wildcat Canyon is one of the areas I'm most concerned about. Right now conditions there are medium critical," Aronson said of the 2,045 acre park in the hills north and east of Richmond and Berkeley.

Fire Chief Tom Barry of the El Cerrito Fire Department agreed with Aronson's assessment, noting that Fall is a critical time in the East Bay Hills because hot September and October winds blow from the north and the east. "We appreciate the rain because it keeps things quiet for a week or two," he explained. "But in the long run it does more harm than good. People have a tendency to let down and become more careless."

Harold Heady, professor of range management and associate dean in the College of Natural Resources at the University of California at Berkeley, said that an August growth of annual grasses would present "minimal" fire damage. However, he described the recent rainstorm as a "mixed blessing." Early germination of grass seed, he said, could change the grassland vegetation considerably for this year.

"The critical level for seed germination is .75 inches of rain, and we are already well over that mark," he said. "This past storm could result in early germination of some of the annual grasses. They would die within weeks and the outcome would be fewer seeds to produce plants for next year."

In addition, 1.59 inches of rain (the amount recorded in Tilden Park since last Friday) was enough to wash soluble nutrients out of the grasses, according to Heady.

"That amount of rain can have a leaching effect, leaving the grass like straw and reducing its quality for livestock," he said. "We need rain, but we need it to be continuous. Real problems occur when a rainstorm of this size is followed by a long dry period."

DISASTER TESTING

proper department head. All incidents will be surprises. No advance knowledge will be released about incidents or the magnitude of the quake.

"We don't even know where the epicenter is going to be," Guletz said.

Called the Bay Area Systems Exercise — or BASE-76 — the 7:30 a.m. - to - noon simulation is the sixth in a series of nine Bay Area county drills coordinated by the state Office of Emergency Services.

Participants include the Defense Civil Preparedness Agency, the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, and staff members of Golden Gate University of San Francisco who prepare the scenarios and conduct advance and post-exercise workshops to sharpen up disaster planning skills.

Included will be the simulated use of the state's Mutual Aid System in which one jurisdiction aids another, starting at the county level and advancing to the state and federal level.

The exercise is strictly simulation; there will be no actual movement of personnel or supplies.

But within each city Emergency Operations Center (generally a police station, fire station or city hall) and the county's facility (Sheriff's Eden Township Substation, 2000 150th Ave., San Leandro), the problem solving techniques, decision making, flow of information and simulated action will be as realistic as possible.

NAS began in 1972 with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric (NOAA) Administration's "Study of Earthquake Losses in the San Francisco Bay Area" — a study which followed by one year a major earthquake in the San Fernando Valley area of Southern California.

A continuing planning effort has followed the NOAA Bay Area study, according to William Ward, regional manager of Region Two (Concord) of the state Office of Emergency Services.

He said the emergency planning now in effect involves the nine Bay Area Counties, 92 cities and 500 special interest districts as well as state and federal agencies. BASE-76 implements all local and regional plans and concepts developed since 1972, Ward said.

The first BASE-76 exercise was January 30 in Solano County, followed by Santa Clara County's drill March 19, and exercises in Contra Costa County April 30, Napa County on June 25 and San Mateo County on July 30.

In addition to Alameda County staff, who will be aided by representatives from state agencies and the private sector, staffs from the following cities are scheduled to participate: Alameda, Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville, Fremont, Hayward, Livermore, Newark, Oakland, Pleasanton, San Leandro and Union City.

Times Hometown news

by Al Baney

Albany residents have an opportunity to reveal this town's neighborliness. Newcomers to this community from San Francisco, Carl Whitaker and Carol Fegte of 418 Evelyn Avenue need volunteers to help in a therapy program for their one and a half-year-old daughter, Anna Rose, who's suffering from cerebral palsy.

As Carl tells it, the therapy involves helping Anna Rose move in crawling movements to reorganize her injured brain. Specialists in the field have noted that such therapy might teach her how to crawl naturally and alleviate her motor problems.

Said Carl, "We need people who will commit themselves to at least one day a week for one hour. We had volunteers helping us in San Francisco, but since moving to Albany in late July, we have had to hunt for new volunteers all over again."

Well, neighbors, the number to call is 525-3460.

Anyone out there with bright ideas as to what city would make a good "sister city" for Albany? The committee organizing the search will be meeting in late September but wants to hear comments from residents before then.

Interested city seekers should contact May Ellis-Olson, Charles McCully, Pastor David R. Houston, Miriam Gershenson or Jerry Blank or call the committee headquarters at 644-8523 or Col. Sam Dows, chairman pro-tem, at 525-0509.

A friend in need is a lion indeed . . . got a call at the Times office from one Dave Lee last week wanting to know where the Albany Lions Club meets. Dave had been graciously invited by his friend Albany growler Pat Balen to the club's meeting, but Pat had forgotten to give Dave the location — Serb's Restaurant.

It wasn't enough of a crisis to mention here, but then out came the Albany Lions Club newsletter with a little ditty that said Dave didn't get the location . . . Pat couldn't find the meeting place himself.

Sometimes you can't win . . . Ted and Fannyne Lower on Ramond Avenue scheduled a garage sale for August 14 but were rained out. They rescheduled a make-up sale for this Saturday.

What happens . . . ? More rain last week, and a high voltage thunderstorm Sunday, but Ted and Fannyne still have their fingers crossed.

Robert L. Tafelski of Albany, a University of Georgia doctoral student in history, has received the Phelps Stokes Fellowship for 1976-77. The $500 grant established by a trust fund set up in 1911 by Carolyn Phelps Stokes, is awarded to a university graduate student who is studying sociology, history, economics or education. The recipient must use the money to make a scientific study based on the blacks and their adjustment to American civilization.

Robert is preparing his doctoral dissertation on urban slavery in Georgia and has been at the U of G for three years.

Quick travel notes . . . Bert Jones has just returned from a month long trip to Germany to see relatives . . . also back from a month-long trip, this one to Africa, is Beulah Belling, former director at the Albany Senior Center.

Beulah and Bert both belong to Soroptimist International of Albany as does Irene MacWilliams. Not to be outdone, Irene also went on an eventful trip . . . to Alameda for Aileen Keane's wedding reception. Aileen recently wed David Miller of Torrance.

And more trips . . . back from a nine-day trip to Las Vegas are Virgil and Vonnice Vierra who were attending the annual convention of the United Association of Plumbers, Pipefitters, and Sprinkler Fitters.

The city of sparkle, also famous for pockets with holes, was a bit crowded. Said Vonnice, there were 3,742 delegates from throughout the nation and Vancouver, B.C., and their wives.

Anyone still wondering why the rain the moved west last week . . . ?

A group of revelers collected at Hubert and Ruth Call's recently to celebrate family friend Lottie Moody Sandford's 70th birthday.

Not one to quibble about her age, Lottie noted, "I don't feel like I'm 70. Then, of course, I don't feel like a teenager either."

Lottie's daughter, Mary Louise, her hubby, Lee, and son, Bruce, couldn't make it from Hayfork, so the family sent a gold-throated orchid which was a special treat for Lottie, who has received only four of those rare flowers in her lifetime.

Family influence . . . noticed Albany Rotary Club president Tony Montano dug out his best behavior at a recent club meeting since his cousin Mario Montano was there as a guest. Tony acted as interpreter since Mario speaks no English, but it seems Rotarian Joe Villa wields the peninsula nation's language with more authority, or so the Rotary News indicates. . .

Parting shot . . . of wine, that is . . . Kermit Lynch, wine merchant at 935 San Pablo Ave. is Herb Caen's new hero. Wrote Herb of Kermit last week: His latest elegantly produced brochure includes this offering: "1962 Romanee St. Vivant (H. Auddifred, shipper). Cloudy, brownish garnet. BART elections

Shartsis seeks Clark's seat

the county a full value of less than $400 from the tax if they do it before Feb. 14 of each year. He said the supervisors would consider taking this option next January.
Even if the supervisors exercise this option, Krause said, it would only affect students living in dorms (if they are taxed) and not students living in family student housing who have a full value of higher than $400.

"But we hope to get the legislature to raise the $400 level," Krause said. "We're all sympathetic to the students and we'd like to be able to raise the level so that all the students will be exempt or at least partly exempt."
In the meantime, Krause and the County Assessor will prepare a report on the administrative costs involved in collecting taxes on properties with a full value of $400 or less.

OAKLAND — San Francisco attorney Arthur Shartsis is seeking Richard Clark's seat on the BART board of directors hitting at "excessive spending" by Clark and Director Elmer Cooper, also at administrators' "high salaries" and failings of the transit system's central computer.
"If I am elected in November, I am committed to voting against Cooper (board president)," said Shartsis, referring to Cooper's current 5-4 majority rule on the board.

Shartsis' campaign theme is "Let's stop the BART rip-off," he said, criticizing the expense accounts of Cooper and Clark which recently were investigated by the Alameda County Grand Jury.
Shartsis lives in Oakland within the BART Third District including Berkeley, Albany, Piedmont, parts of Oakland, also Kensington in Contra Costa County.
He stated, "The BART Board cannot and should not escape responsibility for many basic decisions that have produced a system with grave, major deficiencies."
He said, "After all these years, people of Berkeley and Richmond cannot ride directly to San Francisco. Costs are excessively high while service continues sub-standard."
"And," he asked, "Why does $1.6 billion of capital assets sit idle two days of each week?"

ART SHARTSIS seeks post

figure out modifications." Shartsis said, "The board says it is looking at every major aspect of computer performances over a five-year period. Instead, it should be looking at the computer itself."
The computer is a "dinosaur" with no subsequent models produced by the manufacturer," he added.
An example of the "band aid" approach to the system's problems, he said, is the current "close headways project" for determining how frequently trains can be made to run — "something which should have been available knowledge long ago."
Shartsis stated that the transit district should have acted "much sooner" in bringing legal action against the system's builders, including Parsons Brinckerhoff, Tudor and Bechtel, also Westinghouse, Rohr and Bulova.
Shartsis' law firm in San Francisco includes his wife, Mary Jo. Both are graduates of Boalt Hall.

MICHAEL AND PET SHELTYE, BUFFY given to youngster as birthday gift

For want of light, Buffy is missing

ALBANY — For want of a streetlight, Buffy, missing, and Louis and Eda Zavattaro on Portland Avenue are heartsick over it.
Because of a strange twist of events, Buffy, the grandchildren's pet Sheltie which they were dog-sitting, has been lost since Aug. 8.
"We've placed ads in three newspapers to cover this area, knocked on doors, rang doorbells, combed the streets, everything, but no luck," said Mrs. Zavattaro. "I feel sorry for our grandchildren who've grown up with him, especially Michael, who was given Buffy as a birthday gift."
Mrs. Zavattaro related the following account that led to the white and rust-colored Sheltie's disappearance:
"My daughter and her family were away on vacation so we were dog-sitting. We usually kept him in the house with us but on Aug. 8, we planned to go out for a long time, so we placed him in the garage."
"When we returned at about 11 o'clock that night and after Louis had opened the garage door, Buffy walked outside."
"We didn't think too much about it, but just at that moment a power outage hit the area and all the street lights went out. When we turned to look for Buffy, he was gone."
Officials at PG&E noted that a switch failure in the area had knocked out power for about 18 minutes that night, around the time the Zavattaros' missing Buffy.
Mostly in the dark, the couple searched along Portland Avenue, Key Route Boulevard, Mason Avenue and all the nearby streets but failed to find the Sheltie.
"We thought that running an announcement might reach someone who might have taken Buffy," Mrs. Zavattaro said. "He's never been out the house without a leash and he is not a street dog. Those with information about the Sheltie should call the Zavattaros at 525-0647."
The Zavattaros' search has not been without some agonizing moments.
Last week, Mrs. Zavattaro received a call late Tuesday night from a woman living in the Hillside area of Richmond who said she had read the ad and had found a Sheltie that fit Buffy's description.
"I couldn't sleep that night waiting to see if it was my dog," she said.
However the Sheltie was not Buffy.

ANNUAL PET SHOW

and flies," Dupin said.
The show's history has not been without its moments.
Several years ago a boy, who had entered his 13-year-old dog, Sam, for the eighth straight year, told judges it would probably be the last time since the veterinarian had informed him his pet was suffering from a bad heart.
"The dog had never placed first in any category before," Dupin said, adding, "but the judges, after learning the boy carried the dog up the stairs because of his heart condition and fed him a special diet and daily pills, decided to award Sam the best pet of the show award."

"It was really something," Dupin said. "All day the dog had the longest look on his face, but when he received the award, I swear, he perked up. His tail was wagging, his ears stood up."
Several weeks after the pet show was held, Sam died.
Other winners have included a mud-covered dog, led by a cord from an iron for lack of a leash and by his young owner who was equally covered with mud.

Cuts proposed to BART directors

OAKLAND — Several proposals which would drastically cut allowable personal allowances have been presented to the BART board of directors.
At a meeting of the administration committee last week, Nello Bianco of Richmond proposed that secretarial and clerical assistance be limited to use of a public stenographer only when a director is traveling for the district.
He also proposed the elimination of office rental or pro-rated charges for office space at the director's place of business.
Other exemption proposals made by Bianco were telephone answering services and telephone calls not made on the director's BART credit card, along with postal charges, except in cases of emergency.
Directing himself toward the unusually large expense accounts of BART President Elmer Cooper and former President Richard Clark, Bianco said that he made the proposals simply because, "the people will no longer stand for it."

Clark regularly charged office rent, telephone calls, postage and clerical and research assistance to his BART account. Cooper also billed BART for postage and phone calls, which included a three-month period in 1975 when his postage costs came to $575. Both cases came under the scrutiny of Grand Jury investigations in Alameda and Contra Costa County, although no charges were filed.

The Bianco proposals tightened up one exemption provision relating to district expenses by adding to the present wording itemization must include the purpose and amount together with name and business relationship of persons involved.
Director Ella Hill was the sole individual to state that she saw no reason for any changes in the proposals.
Bianco said that a copy of the proposals have been sent to all members of the board, with the full consideration the matter regular September meeting.

ALBANY — lightning, thunder and rain hit Albany at 2:30 a.m. Sunday, leaving behind 0.10 inches of precipitation and bringing the week's total to 0.80 inches, weatherman George Bernard has reported.
Total rainfall to date is 1.55 inches compared to 1.54 inches to date last year, Bernard said.
"We're ahead 1.19 inches," he remarked, adding, "That half-hour storm was a low ceiling one. Lightning my back yard and turned it blue with light."

Eileen M. Keane wed, makes home in Davis

DAVIS — Camping in the Trinity Alps on their honeymoon were Mr. and Mrs. David Vinson Miller (Eileen Marie Keane) who are making their first home in Davis.

A blue and white cascade bouquet of delphiniums and roses was carried by the bride, who wore a heirloom garter of blue satin and white lace, gift of her aunt, Eileen Vuyas. Eileen Marie made her gown of ivory crepe faced satin with long sleeves of ivory lace. She wore flowers in her hair.

Kathy Keane of Albany was her sister's honor attendant, carrying a cascade bouquet of blue, yellow and white. Colonial arrangements in the same hues were carried by bridesmaids Cathy Selby of Lafayette, and sisters of the bride Julie Keane of Berkeley, Mary Joann and Patsy Keane of Albany, the last two being junior bridesmaids. They wore light blue dresses with ivory lace sleeves.

Best man was Greg Stoner. Ushers were Rocky

Miller, the bridegroom's brother; Dan Thomas, and Jim Thomas.

Commissioned Officers' Club at Alameda Naval Air Station was location for the wedding reception.

The couple greeted 235 guests, including several relatives of the bridegroom who came from Texas, his grandmother, Mrs. Q. V. Miller, and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and children. Walt Nobriga's Band provided music, members including a cousin of the bride's mother, Lenny Heinz.

Firemen's Ball

Door-to-door sales planned

KENSINGTON — Tickets are now on sale for the Kensington Firemen's Association's 40th annual Firemen's Ball that will be held 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Sept. 11 at the El Cerrito Community Center, Mooser Lane.

Since 1936 the volunteer firemen of the Kensington Fire Department have held a ball each year to raise funds to support the Volunteer Association and other community functions.

In past years, proceeds from the Ball have supported a Pony League Baseball team, an Explorer Scout troop, acquisition, restoration and equipment of a rescue van, purchase of dress uniforms and insurance for volunteer firemen and recreational items for the fire station.

Volunteers will be selling tickets door to door this year. Tickets will be $3 apiece.

For information and reservations, call 526-7300 days or 524-1081 evenings.

The ball is one of two fund raisers that volunteers organize. They also sponsor a flea market in the spring.

The Kensington Fire Department consists of 13 professional fire fighters, supplemented on a call basis by 20 volunteer firemen.

SIGN CODE

ate...we realize that we are giving an advantage to people who already have big signs," Ms. Berry said.

When businesses change hands or when signs are to be remodeled they will be required to conform with the sign ordinance, which is to be incorporated into the city's zoning ordinance.

In any case, under the council's resolution, all signs must conform after ten years.

The proposed ordinance calls for two square feet of signs for every linear foot of building frontage on Solano, and three square feet of sign for every foot on San Pablo.

There is a 20 foot height limitation on Solano and a 30 foot limit on San Pablo. Signs on Solano may project only six feet from the building and eight feet on San Pablo.

No date was set for formal approval of the ordinance by the council, but there seemed to be a consensus to go ahead with the ordinance with the specific changes suggested by Griffin.

In other actions, the council:

—Put off for one week a decision on a petition to deny an encroachment at 895 Hillside St. Pending study of an engineering department report on the issue.

—Declared the week of Sept. 5 through Sept. 11 "Union Label Week," as requested by the Alameda County Central Labor Council.

—Approved a call for bids on Sept. 13 for the resurfacing of city streets. Councilman Lewis Howell voted no on the issue arguing against the use of slurry seal on some streets as a "waste of taxpayer money."

Caseys' home in Lafayette

LAFAYETTE — Residing in Lafayette are Dr. and Mrs. George Curtis Casey (Mrs. Ann Mularky), who honeymooned in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Washington and Oregon.

Dr. Casey, a chiropractor in Lafayette, the bridegroom, is son of Ken and Naomi of Brainerd, Minn. He was educated at Brainerd State Junior College and Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa.

Patricia's white Qiana Empire line gown with white lace jacket was made by the bride and her sisters. She wore flowers in her hair and carried a yellow and white bouquet.

Green and yellow gowns with pastel daisy bouquets were chosen for Theresa Mularky, maid of honor, the bride's older sister; and bridesmaids Rosemary, Joanne, Catherine and Elaine Mularky. They also made their dresses.

Peter O'Hara was best man. The bride's nephew, Marcus Mularky, was ring bearer.

Albany Tennis Club

Doubles teams take top spots

ALBANY — Favorites Nguyen Tinh and Pat Moore overcame a strong challenge by Bruce Thomson and Firdosh Anklesaria, 6-3, 5-7, 7-6 (5-2), to take the top spot in the Albany Tennis Club's men's doubles ladder.

Meanwhile Mary Wakida and Tony Taplin combined experience and height to upset favored Jon Ileta White and husband, Bill, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, to capture first place in the club's mixed doubles ladder.

Both matches last weekend climaxed a series of contests which saw club members vie for positions in the men's and women's singles, men's and women's doubles, and mixed doubles ladder.

Nguyen and Moore won their first set handily. However, Thomson and Anklesaria roared back, took the second set, 7-5, and led in the third, 4-1.

Nguyen and Moore rallied to lead 6-5 and took the contest when Moore vollied a cross-court winner at the net in the tie-breaker.

Club members are not awaiting the playing schedule expected soon from the Northern California Tennis Association for the annual inter-club competition slated to start Sept. 5.

the WTT format of five sets, one each of men's and women's singles and doubles and one mixed doubles. Challenges and latest standings in each of the club's ladders follows.

Berkeley police top State cage

There can be no doubt about the Berkeley Police Department being No. 1 in the state when it comes to basketball and the local lawmen are hoping to get a chance to prove the same goes for the nation as well.

With the possible exception of marathon runner Dave Byron, the BPD basketballers highlighted a strong showing by the local force in the recent California Police Olympics with a gold medal performance in the event held at San Jose State University.

Comprising Al Benjamin, Charles Blackwell, Denis Cataleta, Rob Dalley, Wallace Johnson, Jim Kehl, Bobby Miller and Leonard Turner, the team qualified for a shot at the national Police Olympics to be held in Florida and are currently trying to raise funds for the trip.

Byron, in his first stab at the grueling 26-mile, 385-yard grind, earned one of two bronze medals awarded in the event by finishing fourth and also placed seventh in the pentathlon, which included competition in the long jump, 120-yard low hurdles, three-mile run, rope climb and pistol shooting.

Kehl and Milzer showed their athletic versatility by teaming with Washington Davis and Walt Randle for a bronze medal in the mile relay and former UC-Berkeley sprinter Dave Masters took fourths in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

3-D lecture slated

BERKELEY — A lecture titled "3-Dimensional Images" will be given by Dr. Arthur Chancier, humanities professor at San Francisco State University, at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 26 at Berkeley's Lawrence Hall of Science.

Companions in a long distance run . . .

record they were shooting for may not exist in Guinness Book of World Records for 11 year olds, Albany youngsters Joel Sangmaster of 1065 Manage Ave., and Robert Chester of 1116 Key Ave Blvd., gave it a two-hour try over the weekend as shown above. Robert, the taller of the two, explained they ran about 20 miles non-stop between Richmond and Berkeley. Their route began at Joe's house, continued to his grandmother's home in Richmond, then to Robert's house, then on to Robert's grandmother's house in Berkeley. The remainder of their run was up and down San Pablo Avenue.

Albany Bowl tournament

Family doubles draws crowd

ALBANY — The newly surfaced lanes at Albany Bowl will get heavy play this weekend as the last of almost 500 doubles pairs in the Cal Bowl Family Two-man tournament make their bid for glory.

Part of Nor Cal BPA's 10th Bowling Association program, the tournament offers Father-Son, Father-Daughter, Mother-Son, Mother-Daughter competition in four different age classifications, determined by the age of the children.

The Pee-wee division drew 148 pairs, Preps 139, Juniors 145 and Majors 65. Blackstone Bowl, Fresno, sent the biggest contingent, 38 pairs. Next was Lucky Lanes, San Pablo, with 32. Youngest participant is Tina Harvey, four years old from Lucky Lanes, who will bowl in the Pee-wee Mother-Daughter category.

In last week's league play at Albany, Richmond Foundry and the Stinkers finished atop the Men's Jubilee League to earn paid entries into the Nor Cal BPA Jubilee tournament in Napa in October.

The Jubileers produced some good scoring in the final two weeks of their season. Fred Montgomery helped Stinkers with 234-560 in a match that eliminated Single Guys from contention; Ron Neal fired a 600 series, Kent Ochs 599; and first place Richmond Foundry got 555 from Dave Ojeda, 554 by Sam Valencia and 244-531 by Dick Ciesiolka.

Albany's top performer, however, was Ron Ganes, who punched out games of 178-228-218 for 624 to lead Wednesday's Spleens.

In the Plaza Mixed League, Margie Mass, a native of Holland bowling in only her second season, fired a 234 game to close out her 535 series.

Albertha Stoudemire's opening blast of 235 led to a 590 series in the 360 Doubles League, while Oscar Matthews' 584 and Charles Davis' 576, which included a 244 game, paced the Marathon Mixed.

Ed Childress stepped out in front of the Volney Morris Memorial League with 556, Felix Farrish led Gin Mill Fours with 548, and Craig Timms again had the best set for Vacation Fours with 522.

Solano Club leads in liniment baseball play

ALBANY — League-leading Solano Club's first round 6-2 decision to the Hill-Gang, highlighted a rain abbreviated schedule in the Albany Park Recreation Department's Men's Liniment baseball League.

Solano Club retained the spot by downing the managed Oliviero 24-6. Scott Dana led the winner's run line by going 5-for-6, while Oliviero's Walton led squad with a pair of hits.

Every member of the starting lineup scored at least once, and Al Pettus and Tom Drennan each went 4-for-5 as the Champs whitewashed Al's Big Burger, whose Rick Kempe and Bill Bucholtz collected two hits apiece.

In a see-saw battle, the Winners edged Tom's Terrifics 9-8. The father-son combo of Charlie and Tim Allen paced a three-run seventh for Tom's Terrifics, only to see the Winners bounce back with three runs of their own in the bottom of the frame.

Council ok's 4-way stop sign

ALBANY — Shades of Berkeley in Albany? Creeping stop signs? Not yet.

The spectre of Berkeley's traffic management plan were raised by assistant city engineer Robert Guletz Monday night at the council session, during a discussion of proposed four-way stop signs at the intersections of Posen and Ordway streets and Santa Fe and Portland streets.

Guletz quoted from a follow-up report by consultants for the Berkeley traffic plan which indicated that stop signs have done little to alleviate the excessive speed problems in Berkeley.

The council ultimately voted in a four-way stop at the corner of Santa Fe and Portland and a double yellow stripe painted on Posen with a crosswalk marked on Ordway. As with Berkeley, the council asked for a six-month follow up study of the effects of these changes.

The vote followed the advice of police chief James Simmons who favored a trial four-way stop at the Santa Fe intersection but not one at Posen. Simmons also told the council he thought more could be done with increased traffic enforcement, agreeing with suggestions for this from council members.

Earlier in the meeting last night the council had rejected all bids for constructing an asphalt sidewalk and curb on the southside emergency lane on the Marin Street extension from Jackson Street to San Pablo Avenue.

This reversed the council's earlier vote calling for the bid. The low bid was the Ransome Company of Emeryville, for $8,312.50.

Albany's water is fluoridated

OAKLAND — The East Bay Municipal Utility District (EBMUD) completed fluoridation of its water system this week with the hookup of its Orinda Filter Plant which serves Oakland and parts of the Berkeley area.

The San Pablo Filter Plant in Kensington, which serves Albany, El Cerrito, parts of Berkeley and Richmond, began its fluoridation operation last week.

EBMUD recommends that people concerned with the fluoridation of water note the dates of the program's startup for making any changes they deem necessary.

The district's Lafayette plant was the first of six water purification facilities to have the fluoride compound, hydrofluosilicic acid, added to the water.

Each fluoridation unit was tested before being put into service, officials noted.

The council also voted to seek an easement from the University of California along Marin to construct a sidewalk further from the arterial street.

The purpose of the sidewalk on the south side of Marin was to provide a safe pedestrian route for school children from Middle School which will open for the first time next month.

School board member Ruth Ganong told the council she thought the suggested sidewalk in the emergency lane would not serve the purpose and wondered why the city couldn't use the UC property for the sidewalk, which is located behind a chainlink fence.

Assistant city engineer Robert Guletz explained that an initial inquiry into the possibility of acquiring an easement from UC for a sidewalk indicated there would be too much "red tape" to cut to get the sidewalk ready for the opening of school.

The council's reversal on the sidewalk means that the six bidders who competed for the sidewalk construction contract have bid in vain.

Harry Styron, former member of the traffic and safety commission, questioned whether the council, in denying the bids, was leaving the city with no option but to place the children's lives in peril.

He questioned the wisdom of trying to channel the children to the north side of Marin with crossing guards. "When I was that age, nobody could tell me what to do."

"You haven't seen some of our crossing guards," retorted councilman Michael Gleason.

Questions raised over waterfront financing

ALBANY — Councilman Michael Gleason has informed the City Council that the state Department of Navigation and Ocean Development (DNOD) "had a difference of opinion with our consultant" about the city's $7 million loan request for waterfront development.

The council Monday night was told by Gleason that DNOD had sent a letter to the city raising specific questions about various aspects of the multi-million dollar marina.

Gleason said the loan is "somewhat in jeopardy" but cautioned that the letter does not constitute a denial of the loan application, rather a disagreement about specific aspects of the plan, "such as how many restaurants there would be in the proposed development."

Gleason said DNOD could "fully justify a loan of $4.5 million" at this time, and that the rest was negotiable.

No action was taken by the council on the matter and the subject was closed without discussion.

Albany police may yet obtain stress analyzer

ALBANY — The police here will get their coveted psychological stress evaluator (PSE) by hook or by crook, it might be said, by hook.

Police chief James Simmons, who was turned down by the city council earlier this month for the lie detector device, got a boost from a citizens group Monday night who have announced a private fund raising effort to buy the $2,500 unit.

Leonard Keck, a real estate investor, told the council at the regular meeting that he will solicit funds from public subscriptions at service clubs and other groups and private individuals.

The PSE is a scientific gadget that reportedly measures the amount of stress in a person's voice in stress-producing situations, as when one is being accused of a crime by a police investigator.

Chief Simmons had asked the council for funds to purchase the unit at a price he said was half the normal price for a PSE. The council turned down the request basically for reasons of economy and at least one councilman, Michael Gleason, said he had qualms about the use of such devices because the subject under investigation might not know it was being used.

Keck told the council he thought the device would aid in police investigation and hence save time and money and perhaps allow more time for police to spend in traffic enforcement activity, a topic to which the council gave a great deal of attention last night.

Chief Simmons has told the council that the PSE has been tested by the department with great success, particularly in eliminating innocent people as suspects of crimes.

During last night's meeting the question was raised whether the machine, which measures voice stress based on tape recordings made of suspects, would be purchased and used against the will of the council.

Councilman Patrick Griffin responded by saying his only reservation was the expense of the unit, not any question of the validity or constitutionality of its operations.

Keck said he hoped the device would be purchased to help the police eliminate innocent crime suspects and to save the department expenditures of time and energy in investigative work.

He said that a citizen's effort to raise funds for police equipment is not a new idea. He told the council that in 1938, a citizens group raised about $300 to buy three radios for Albany's three patrol cars.

Stege floats a 'trial balloon'

EL CERRITO — The Stege Sanitary District has "floated a trial balloon" over the East Bay Municipal Utilities District (EBMUD) to see if EBMUD is interested in taking over Stege, district officials have reported.

The Stege district is responsible for maintaining lines in El Cerrito, Kensington and Richmond Annex.

"The 'trial balloon' was set aloft over the weekend at a meeting of the California Assn. of Sanitary Agencies (CASA) in San Diego.

Stege board chairman M. M. Snodgrass, before the meeting, said he had hoped to propose the idea of EBMUD general manager Jack Harnett.

In an interview last week, Snodgrass said, "There's no story yet," and insisted that this is the first time the Stege district has formally offered EBMUD complete operation of the district.

The EBMUD takeover of Stege operations has been discussed for years, Snodgrass said. The first stage of the takeover took place over a year ago when Stege began channeling all its sewage to the EBMUD treatment plant in Oakland and closing down its own plant on Pt. Isabel.

The second stage is to sell EBMUD the Pt. Isabel property, the district's only real estate. EBMUD currently has an option to buy it.

The third phase would be complete takeover of the sewer lines.

Child discrimination
Dear Editor:
I was glad that you printed Leslie Grebner's letter (Aug. 11). Many times I have encountered the same problem and know of many others who have.
To hear a landlord/landlady tell you at the phone "Sorry, no kids!" can be likened, I think, to "Sorry, no Blacks!" or "Sorry, no Jewish people!" in that it is a definite form of discrimination. In fact, I feel that it violates my child's human rights.
I know of many families whose children have never caused any damage whatsoever to their rented apartments, but I wonder whether there are not any adults (those who fight, drink, are noisy, dirty, etc.) who have? Could not the high rents and cleaning fees/deposits often charged today be used to cover any possible damages?

On one hand our society exults in the joys of motherhood/parenthood while on the other hand punishing those who comply. Where is the so-called Right-to-Life movement that tells us to bring every child into this world, now, one wonders. Surely this would be a constructive area they could apply themselves to.

The Times publishes only signed letters, reserving the right to edit them in the interest of clarity, libel and good taste. Letters longer than 250 words may be shortened.

It is high time that more people speak up on this subject. Some suggestions are to:
a) Voice your feelings on this immediately to the landlord/landlady;
b) Write to all newspapers (letters-to-the-editor) in order to bring this concern out into the open;
c) Call your radio stations that have "all-in programs";
d) Inquire about the issue at the Human/Civil Rights Commission or American Civil Liberties Union (possibly as subcategory of sex discrimination?);
e) Write to your legislators — we passed laws against religion, age, race, sex discrimination, why not against "child" discrimination or just "human" discrimination?

EBRPD's tax rate

OAKLAND — Following a clash between directors over whether the tax rate should be cut five cents or upped one cent, the East Bay Regional Park District board set the rate at 20.4 cents per $100 assessed valuation, the same amount levied in fiscal 1975-76.
One person in the audience, Joyce E. Burr of El Cerrito, urged increasing the levy to 21.4 cents, while board director Fred C. Blumberg of Lafayette asked a five-cent cut.
The 1976-77 fiscal budget, termed "bare bones" by board president John J. Leavitt of Alameda, was pegged at $22,810,873 at a May 17 meeting.
A motion to set the rate at 21.4 cents was introduced by director Mary Lee Jeffers of Berkeley and seconded by director Harlan R. Kessel of Oakland, but strong objections by director William Jardin of San Leandro forced its withdrawal.
Another motion by Kessel setting the rate at 20.4 cents passed 4-1, with Blumberg dissenting. Directors Dr. Howard Cogswell of Hayward and Paul Badger of Pinole were absent.

JCPenney ARAMID BELTED RADIAL WARRANTY FULL 2 YEAR WARRANTY for your private car.

If this tire becomes unserviceable, return it to us. We will replace it free, regardless of mileage.

Limited Warranty on Road Hazards and Defects in Material and Workmanship extending Between 24 Months of Use and Last 2/32 Inch of Tread Remaining.

If our Aramid Belted Radial tire fails due to road hazard or defects in material or workmanship after 24 months of use, we will, at our option repair it or replace the tire charging only the portion of the current selling price (plus Federal Excise Tax) where applicable that represents tread used. This warranty is no longer effective when the tread indicators appear in the tire showing that only 2/32" of tread remains. Just return the tire to us. This warranty applies only to tires used on private cars.

Limited Warranty on Tread Wear Extending Between 24 Months of Use and Last 2/32 Inch of Tread Remaining.

If the Aramid Belted Radials wear down to the tread indicators that appear when only 2/32" of tread remains after 24 months of use and before 44 months of use, we will make an adjustment as shown in the chart below. Wearout caused by misalignment is excluded. In return for the tire, we will provide a new tire, charging the then-current selling price, less the following allowance (plus Federal Excise Tax where applicable).
